DEAR FRIENDS,

On behalf of everyone here at Ancient Faith, we are delighted to bring into your homes, bookstores, and churches this 2017 Christmas Catalog.

Please take time to browse through our beautiful line of Nativity greeting cards, numerous delightful ornaments and gift ideas, icons and altar supplies with which to enhance prayer life throughout our homes, and music to soothe the soul year round. And, especially, we ask that you take time to review our published works, both old and new titles, whose authors and illustrators, by God's grace, have worked tirelessly to prepare for our spiritual enrichment.

Although as Orthodox Christians we are in a thanksgiving mode all year long, evidenced by our daily prayer life, we at Ancient Faith want to take this moment to express our heartfelt thanks to God for all of you and for the many gifts He has bestowed upon our mutual sister ministries: Ancient Faith Radio and Ancient Faith Publishing. By the generous support of world-wide patrons such as yourselves, it is obvious that He has heard our prayers and opened the hearts of many.

As you listen to music or podcasts on Ancient Faith Radio brought to you 24/7, or as you shop our online store and browse our catalogs at your leisure, know that we are available to answer your inquiries and help you in any way we can.

We look forward to serving you always, especially as we approach the Nativity fast; for we know that our journey through Advent together will be filled with love and great anticipation toward a peaceful and joyful Nativity of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

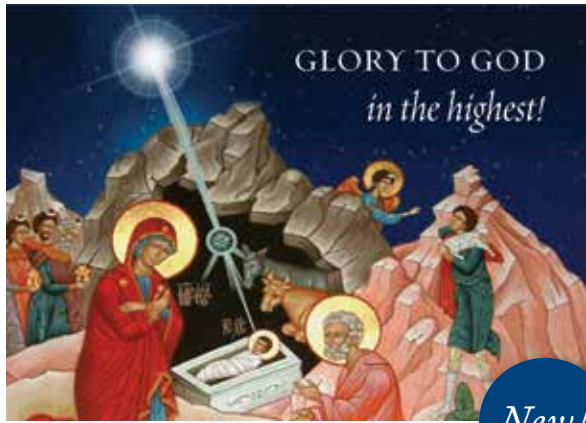

In Christ's Service,

Nancy Colakovic

We Pray

Written in expressive verse, We Pray invites children and their parents to explore some of the unique aspects of Orthodox Christian prayer life. Through reflections on topics like icons, the Jesus Prayer, and the liturgy, children are invited to see the beauty in our way of praying and understand better the purpose of Orthodox prayer.

“Sasha and the Dragon is an excellent addition to an Orthodox family’s library. It has a great story which also presents multiple possibilities for family discussion. Chances are, this book will be read again and again, offering many opportunities to discuss its contents.”

—Orthodox Christian Parenting blog

“This picture book is a powerful allegory to inspire our children to pray to transform their fear (and all monsters under the bed) into a pathway for love.”

—Sherry Weaver Smith, on Amazon

“In my years of teaching Sunday School, I have found that most boys and some girls especially in the elementary school years adore the image of St. Michael leading angels in an epic battle against evil; ‘Kill it with your sword! Kill it with your sword!’ is a perfect prayer for them as they face their fears in this dark and scary world.”

—Elissa Bjeletich, on Amazon

Laura Wolfe is a summa cum laude graduate of Kutztown University who lives and works in rural Pennsylvania. Her short stories and poetry can be found in The Soul of Wit, an anthology of subcreative fiction from Oloris Publishing. In the Candle's Glow

The bees do their work. The beekeeper does hers. And little Felicia, with the honesty and faith of a child, takes the fruit of the bee and the beekeeper's efforts and lights her candle and prays. She prays once, she prays twice, she prays three prayers, then watches the breeze from the window carry her prayers from the candle heavenward.

"Felicia will light her candle, pray, and watch as a breeze carries the wisp of smoke from her candle flame up to heaven along with her prayers. But where did the candle come from? The story begins with a breeze, some bees, and a beekeeper (who happens to be a singing nun!) . . . [The book got me] thinking about all the symbolism associated with lighted candles and why in the Orthodox Church our candles are made from pure beeswax."

—Wendy Braun, goodbooksforyoungsouls.blogspot.com

"My daughter loved the story and seemed to connect especially to the way Felicia's prayers were represented in the candle's flame. This book has become a way for us to talk about the sacred in terms that are easier to grasp for concrete thinkers."

—Summer Kinard, on Amazon

"I just read through the book for the first time and I have to admit I am teary. It is absolutely beautiful."

— Marlee S., on Amazon

Elizabeth Crispina Johnson writes from her underground house in the Finger Lakes district of New York where she homeschools, raises chickens, and works on her plans for a gypsy vardo. She has written three previous books published by Ancient Faith Publishing. She attends St. John the Baptist Orthodox Church in Rochester, NY.

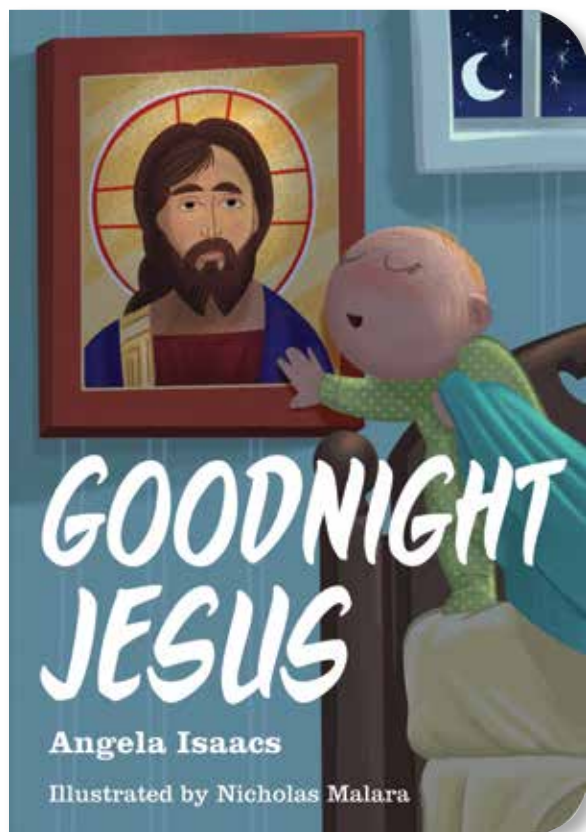

Amandine Wanert is a French illustrator who currently lives in Paris. She divides her time between children's books and medical illustration. She enjoyed working on In the Candle's Glow, capturing the essence of this joyful, lively little girl who can also be contemplative. Amandine especially enjoyed creating the soft, candlelit atmosphere inside the church. The making of this book was an unusually rich experience for her.

GEORGIA BRIGGS

Icon

Forget your old name. Forget your parents. These are the things Euphrosyne's grandparents and counselor tell her. But if Orthodox Christianity is a lie, why did the icon so dramatically save her life? And what can she do to get the icon back?

In a post-Christian America, where going to church, praying, or owning holy things means death, a twelve-year-old girl searches for the truth. Finding it may cost her everything.

DISTINCTIVES

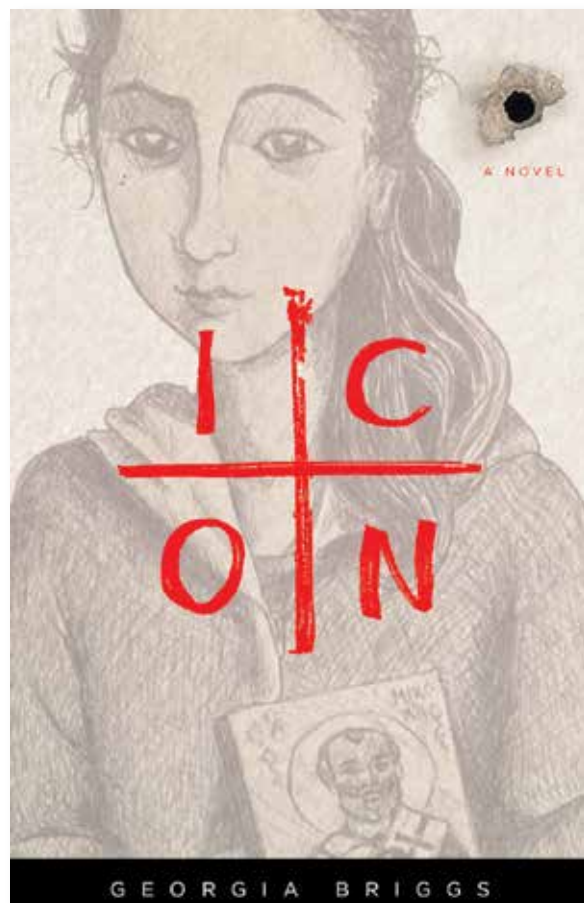

- One-of-a-kind Orthodox novel in the popular dystopian genre

L. JOSEPH LETENDRE

When You PrayA Practical Guide to an Orthodox Life of Prayer

Anyone who prays, or has tried to pray and given up in discouragement, knows praying—really praying—is not easy. Praying consistently seems almost impossible. Too often and too easily, prayer becomes a burden: one more item on an already overcrowded to-do list. Failing to pray becomes a source of guilt and stress as we must once again admit our inconstancy and procrastination to our father confessor. Yet, our Lord said, “Come to me, all of you who are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. My burden is easy and my yoke is light” (Matt. 11:30). The purpose of this book, then, is not to add to the burden, but to ease it by distilling the advice and experience of those who pray.

V. REV. PETER GILLQUIST

Memories of His MercyRecollections of the Grace and Providence of God

Whether he was writing or speaking, Fr. Peter was a master communicator. He had said for years that this was the other book he wanted to write. “I’d like to start from my youngest memories about how the Lord has been merciful to me and now to us,” he said to an interviewer, “through those years of searching for the Church, learning how to be Orthodox, doing the missions and evangelism work; up through the years of retirement, where I continue experiencing His mercy . . . to share with other people the faithfulness of God in a way that I hope will motivate them to trust in Him more than they do now.”

REV. ANTONIOS KALDAS & IRENI ATTIA

Two Become One

An Orthodox Christian Guide to Engagement and Marriage

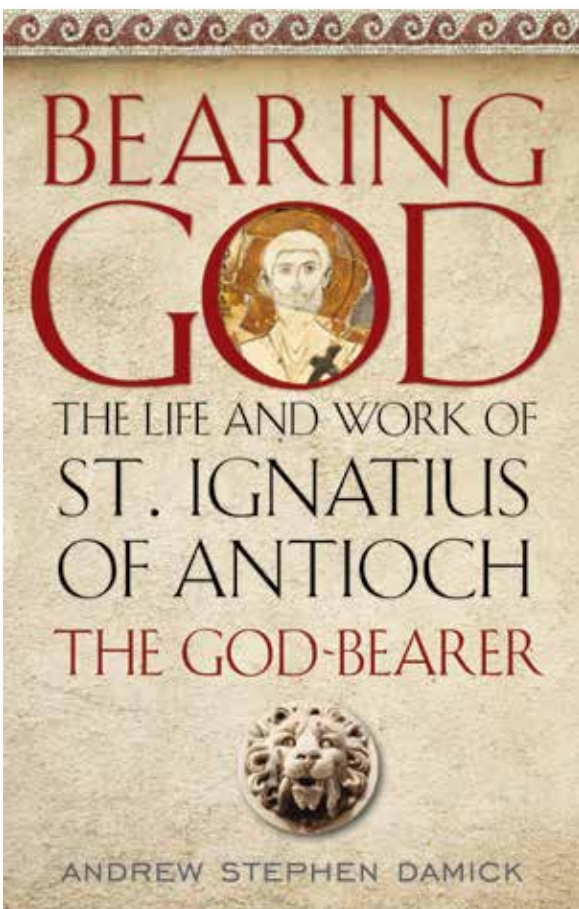

Two Become One is aimed at helping the young person who is embarking upon the grand adventure of finding a life partner (although married couples will also find much of benefit in it). Couples are encouraged to read this book together. It will take them through the process of preparing oneself for marriage, finding a life partner, working out whether he or she is the right one, enjoying an effective engagement period, and developing a sound and profound understanding of what marriage is all about, as a firm foundation for the lifelong adventure of marriage.

ANDREW STEPHEN DAMICK

Bearing God

The Life and Work of St. Ignatius of Antioch the God-Bearer

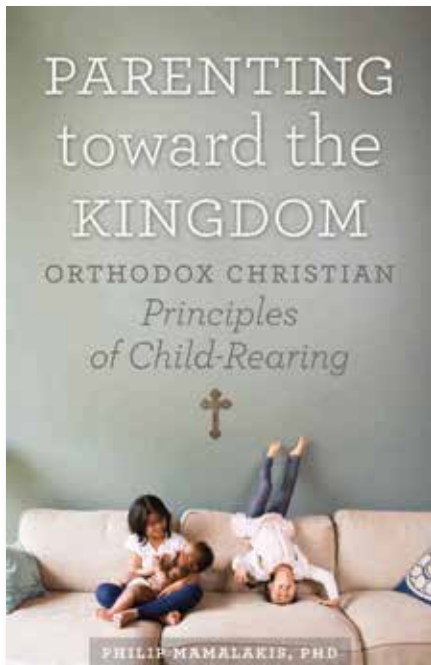

St. Ignatius, first-century Bishop of Antioch, called the “God-bearer,” is one of the earliest witnesses to the truth of Christ and the nature of the Christian life. Tradition tells us that as a small child, Ignatius was singled out by Jesus Himself as an example of the childlike faith all Christians must possess (see Matthew 18:1–4). In Bearing God, Fr. Andrew Damick recounts the life of this great pastor, martyr, and saint, and interprets for the modern reader five major themes in the pastoral letters he wrote: martyrdom, salvation in Christ, the bishop, the unity of the Church, and the Eucharist.

Becoming Truly Human, The Film

Meet a group of men and women who consider themselves “religiously unaffiliated.” Learn why they have rejected or at least have serious doubts about Christianity. Then meet Basil, who was also in that category but now is an Orthodox Christian. This 85-minute documentary film is ideal for watching in a group or with your family. It’s sure to result in a meaningful discussion about what it means to be truly human.

Becoming Truly Human, The Program

An outreach program designed to engage modern Americans in a conversation about issues too often left unexplored. With these materials, anyone can host an effective discussion group and invite guests to a further exploration of Orthodox Christianity. In the program, you will find a highly engaging and superbly produced feature documentary about the “unaffiliated” category of people who are often referred to as “Nones.” This is the fastest growing demographic in America. There is also a Course Director’s Manual as well as a Moderator’s Workbook for leading group discussions. This ministry is designed to be lay-led with your priest as your spiritual advisor.

To purchase the program, call 1-800-967-7377; orders accepted only by phone.

A Journey to Fullness

An Introduction to the Fullness of the Original Christian Faith

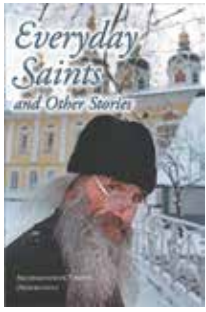

“A Journey To Fullness” is an outreach tool for parishes seeking a consistent, practical means of engaging people who want to learn more about the Orthodox Faith. Comprising sixteen 20-minute video sessions, “A Journey to Fullness” is the first step along the path to becoming a catechumen. It’s designed for use in the parish, Sunday School class, small group, youth group, Adult Education group, and other settings where you need a systematic way to educate people about the basics of the Orthodox Faith.
