BOOKS FOR THE LENTEN SEASON BY ARCHIMANDRITE VASSILIOS PAPAVASSILIOU

Thirty Steps to Heaven The Ladder of Divine Ascent for All Walks of Life

Many laypeople have attempted to read the great spiritual classic, The Ladder of Divine Ascent, but have been frustrated in attempting to apply the lessons of this monastic text to their everyday lives in the world. Archimandrite Vassilios interprets the Ladder for the ordinary Christian without sacrificing any of its beauty and power. Now you too can accept the challenge offered by St. John Climacus to ascend closer to God with each passing day.

Paperback, 250 pages 9781936270897—$18.95

Meditations for Great Lent Reflections on the Triodion

Using hymns from the Triodion and the Scripture readings appointed for the season, Meditations for Great Lent shows us how to make our fast acceptable: to fast not only from food but from sin; to fast with love and humility, as a means to an end and not an end in itself. Keep this gem of a book with you to inspire you for the Fast and to dip into for encouragement as you pursue your Lenten journey.

Paperback, 96 pages 9781936270606—$9.95

Meditations for Holy Week Dying and Rising with Christ

Archimandrite Vassilios brings his liturgical and devotional insights and warm, accessible style to bear on the services of Holy Week, helping the reader enter fully into this most rich and intense period of the Christian year.

Paperback, 134 pages 9781936270880—$12.95

Meditations for Pascha Reflections on the Pentecostarion

Far from being merely a “vacation from fasting,” the Pascha season is a time that, properly understood, can greatly enrich our faith. During the Pascha season, we celebrate and rejoice in our Lord’s Resurrection and we prepare for the great feast of the Holy Spirit descending upon us.

REVIEWS:

"Really like this version of the Psalter. Translation is comfortable for one who speaks American english. My wife and I will read the complete psalter aloud together twice during Lent and once through during the Nativity fast. This version seems to flow more smoothly than some others especially when reading aloud. Also like that it is translated by Orthodox Christian Monks."

—GWL, Amazon customer

"The introduction is very helpful in how to interpret the Psalms in a meaningful way per the church Fathers. The translation is wonderful and the daily portions are very helpful as a motivator to read through the Psalms on a regular basis. Highly recommend!"

The Ancient Faith Psalter Audiobook

Read and chanted
(not a CD; download only)

This special edition of the Ancient Faith Psalter includes two full recordings (one chanted, one read aloud) by Fr. John Oliver, with an introduction by Fr. Michael Gillis. Both versions were recorded on the solea of an Orthodox church, and the beautiful sound quality reflects the presence of that sacred space. The Psalter audiobook is a powerful companion for your daily prayers and for times when you need a source of peace and encouragement.

Time and Despondency Regaining the Present in Faith and Life

by Nicole M. Roccas

Idleness. Apathy. Restlessness. Procrastination. These are symptoms of what early Christian theologians called despondency (acedia), a spiritual sickness rooted in a lack of care or effort. A condition as old as the ancients, despondency thrives in today's culture of leisure, anxiety, and digital distraction. Time and Despondency is a penetrating synthesis of ancient theology, spiritual memoir, and self-help practicality. It envisions despondency as the extension of a broken relationship with the experience of time. Driven by the fear of death and the anxiety of living, despondency drives us to abandon the present moment, forsaking the only temporal realm in which we have true fellowship with Christ. The remedies offered by time-honored Christian thinkers for this predicament constitute not only an antidote to despondency but also stepping stones back to the present moment. In regaining the sacredness of time, we re-encounter the Resurrection of Christ in the dark and restless moments of our lives.

"Time and Despondency is a gentle and insightful book that provides insight into the reader's own reasons for living on the margins of life rather than seeking a deeper spiritual existence. It is not a book that is merely intended for the shelf but serves rather as a constant companion, fortifying readers with practical resources to conquer despondency's subtle and steady degradation of the human person. Using all her resources, including her own experiences, Dr. Nicole Roccas unmasks the dragon of despondency by casting it against the grid of time. Time and Despondency equips readers to be time-traveling soldiers, journeying through the insidious grasp of despondency and toward eternity." —Joel Williams

"The first thing to say about Time and Despondency is 'Perfect timing!' More and more I hear about and speak with people struggling with despondency. In an extremely readable and refreshingly practical way, Nicole Roccas provides wisdom and advice about the struggle with despondency that can connect to the modern reader and is also grounded in the ancient wisdom of the fathers of the Church. This book would be a welcome read for anyone who has struggled with or known anyone to struggle with the ancient and modern 'noon day demon,' despondency." —Fr. Philip Rogers

Dr. Nicole Roccas has been researching and writing about time from both a historical and theological perspective for nearly ten years. In addition to being a writer and editor, she lectures at the Orthodox School of Theology at Trinity College (Toronto). You can find more of her writing on her Ancient Faith podcast and blog, Time Eternal, and her website, www.nicoleroccas.com. Nicole has a PhD in History from the University of Cincinnati. A native of Wisconsin, Nicole lives in Toronto with her husband, Basil, whose efforts to indoctrinate her into the ways of maple syrup and Canadian spelling have yet to take effect.

A Song in the Furnace The Message of the Book of Daniel

by Lawrence R. Farley

The Book of Daniel should be read with the eyes of a child. It's a book of wonders and extremes—mad kings, baffling dreams with gifted interpreters, breathtaking deliverances, astounding prophecies—with even what may be the world's first detective stories added in for good measure. To argue over the book's historicity, as scholars have done for centuries, is to miss the point. In A Song in the Furnace, Fr. Lawrence Farley reveals all the wonders of this unique book to the receptive eye.

FROM THE INTRODUCTION

"Like Daniel, we also live in Babylon, awaiting its apocalyptic fall, and like Daniel's three holy and youthful friends, we also increasingly stand face to face with Nebuchadnezzar as he demands our cultural submission to an alien ideology. . . . This then is the urgent message of the Book of Daniel. As we stand before the powers of the age and hear the demand for cultural assimilation and surrender to secularism, we must make our own the words of the three young men to the king as the furnace of fury burned before them."

Archpriest Lawrence R. Farley is the pastor of St. Herman of Alaska Orthodox Church (OCA) in Langley, B.C., Canada. He received his B.A. from Trinity College, Toronto, and his M.Div. from Wycliffe College, Toronto. A former Anglican priest, he converted to Orthodoxy in 1985 and studied for two years at St. Tikhon's Orthodox Seminary in Pennsylvania. In addition to the Orthodox Bible Companion Series, he has also published The Empty Throne, Let Us Attend, One Flesh, The Christian Old Testament, and Following Egeria.

Two Become One An Orthodox Christian Guide to Engagement and Marriage

by Rev. Antonios Kaldas & Ireni Attia

Two Become One is aimed at helping the young person who is embarking upon the grand adventure of finding a life partner (although married couples will also find much of benefit in it). Couples are encouraged to read this book together. It will take them through the process of preparing oneself for marriage, finding a life partner, working out whether he or she is the right one, enjoying an effective engagement period, and developing a sound and profound understanding of what marriage is all about, as a firm foundation for the lifelong adventure of marriage.

Bearing God The Life and Works of St. Ignatius of Antioch the God-Bearer

by Andrew Stephen Damick

St. Ignatius, first-century Bishop of Antioch, called the “God-bearer,” is one of the earliest witnesses to the truth of Christ and the nature of the Christian life. Tradition tells us that as a small child, Ignatius was singled out by Jesus Himself as an example of the childlike faith all Christians must possess (see Matthew 18:1–4). In Bearing God, Fr. Andrew Damick recounts the life of this great pastor, martyr, and saint, and interprets for the modern reader five major themes in the pastoral letters he wrote: martyrdom, salvation in Christ, the bishop, the unity of the Church, and the Eucharist.

When You Pray A Practical Guide to an Orthodox Life of Prayer

by L. Joseph Letendre

Anyone who prays, or has tried to pray and given up in discouragement, knows praying—really praying—is not easy. Praying consistently seems almost impossible. Too often and too easily, prayer becomes a burden: one more item on an already overcrowded to-do list. Failing to pray becomes a source of guilt and stress as we must once again admit our inconstancy and procrastination to our father confessor. Yet, our Lord said, “Come to me, all you who are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. My burden is easy and my yoke is light” (Matt. 11:30). The purpose of this book, then, is not to add to the burden, but to ease it by distilling the advice and experience of those who pray.

Memories of His Mercy Recollections of the Grace and Providence of God

by V. Rev. Peter Gillquist

Whether he was writing or speaking, Fr. Peter was a master communicator. He had said for years that this was the other book he wanted to write. “I’d like to start from my youngest memories about how the Lord has been merciful to me and now to us,” he said to an interviewer, “through those years of searching for the Church, learning how to be Orthodox, doing the missions and evangelism work; up through the years of retirement, where I continue experiencing His mercy . . . to share with other people the faithfulness of God in a way that I hope will motivate them to trust in Him more than they do now.”

Everything Tells Us about God

by Katherine Bolger Hyde

with illustrations by Livia Coloji

The world is like a giant puzzle God made that teaches us about Himself. Every piece—earth, sea, and sky, plants, animals, and people—reveals something about who He is and why we're here. Everything Tells Us about God will help children recognize the beautiful and sometimes mysterious pieces of this puzzle for themselves.

A children's picture book, ages 2 to 12

Hardcover, 32 pages, 8" x 10"

9781944967321—$19.95

Katherine Bolger Hyde has devoted her life to books as a reader, editor, and writer. Katherine lives in the redwood country of the California central coast, where she shares a home with her husband, the youngest of her four children, and two obstreperous cats. When not reading, writing, or editing for Ancient Faith, she can generally be found knitting while watching British mystery series or singing in the choir at St. Lawrence Orthodox Church.

Livia Coloji makes things up and then paints them with overlying layers of vivid color. She has done this since she was little, but professionally she's been doing it for twelve years now. Most of her projects are in the field of illustration, for clients based all over the world. When she's not working on commissions in her shared studio in Timisoara, Romania, she creates artwork inspired by nature and human nature.

We Pray

by Daniel G. Opperwall
with illustrations by Jelena and Marko Grbic

Written in expressive verse, We Pray invites children and their parents to explore some of the unique aspects of Orthodox Christian prayer life. Through reflections on topics like icons, the Jesus Prayer, and the liturgy, children are invited to see the beauty in our way of praying and understand better the purpose of Orthodox prayer.

A children's picture book, ages 2 to 12
Hardcover, 32 pages, 8" x 8"
9781944967208—$19.95

Daniel G. Opperwall is a husband and father of three young children. He teaches church history and patristics at the Orthodox School of Theology at Trinity College, University of Toronto. He and his family live, read, and pray together in Hamilton, Ontario.

Jelena and Marco Grbic, along with their two children, currently live in Belgrade, Serbia, and have recently discovered their passion for illustration. As Orthodox Christians they have enjoyed working on this beautiful book that brings an ancient Orthodox experience of prayer to children in a simple and inspiring way.

The storybook reminds parents and adults alike of Christ's words, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven" (Matthew 18:3).

Sasha and the Dragon

by Laura E. Wolfe

with illustrations by Nicholas Malara

Walking the lonely streets of a new, unfamiliar town, Sasha feels displaced and alone. His grandmother is dying; the children in the neighborhood laugh when he walks by. And there is a dragon under his bed—he is sure! When Sasha cries for help, God and His saints hear him, and he has an experience that both changes his life and sweetens his soul.

Sasha and the Dragon is a powerful tale of a child's nighttime fear and the angelic protection that relieves it.

Laura Wolfe is a summa cum laude graduate of Kutztown University who lives and works in rural Pennsylvania. Her short stories and poetry can be found in The Soul of Wit, an anthology of subcreative fiction from Oloris Publishing. She and her family are members of St. Paul Antiochian Orthodox Church in Emmaus, Pennsylvania.

Nicholas Malara grew up in Denver, Colorado, where he earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Illustration. He has been blessed with a career in professional art for over sixteen years. Since his conversion ten years ago, he has also been a student of Orthodox iconography. He currently resides in Spokane, Washington, with his wife and two children.

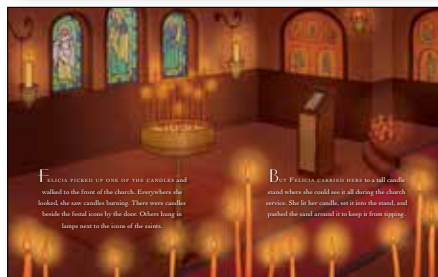

In the Candle's Glow

by Elizabeth Crispina Johnson
with illustrations by Amandine Wanert

The bees do their work. The beekeeper does hers. And little Felicia, with the honesty and faith of a child, takes the fruit of the bee and the beekeeper's efforts and lights her candle and prays. She prays once, she prays twice, she prays three prayers, then watches the breeze from the window carry her prayers from the candle heavenward.

A children's picture book, ages 2 to 12
Hardcover, 32 pages, 8" x 10"
9781944967093—$19.95

Elizabeth Crispina Johnson writes from her underground house in the Finger Lakes district of New York where she homeschools, raises chickens, and works on her plans for a gypsy vardo. She has written three previous books published by Ancient Faith Publishing. She attends St. John the Baptist Orthodox Church in Rochester, NY.

Amandine Wanert is a French illustrator who currently lives in Paris. She divides her time between children books and medical illustration. She enjoyed working on In the Candle's Glow, capturing the essence of this joyful, lively little girl who can also be contemplative. Amandine especially enjoyed creating the soft, candlelit atmosphere inside the church. The making of this book was an unusually rich experience for her.

The Miracle of the Red Egg

by Elizabeth Crispina Johnson

with illustrations by Daria Fisher

At Pascha, Orthodox people all over the world dye and bless red eggs. Here is the story of how this tradition started—way back in apostolic times, with St. Mary Magdalene and a blessed miracle that dazzled the unbelieving Roman emperor with the reality and power of Christ's Resurrection.

A Child's Guide to the Divine Liturgy

compiled and edited by Ancient Faith Publishing,
with illustrations by Megan Elizabeth Gilbert

A wonderful tool for Orthodox children!
A Child's Guide to the Divine Liturgy is designed as an aid to help children negotiate their way through the Divine Liturgy and learn more about the Church and our faith.

Small and easy to hold, with engaging illustrations, this guide is written to appeal to children ages two to ten. The very young child will learn basic vocabulary and come to recognize the various milestones in the Divine Liturgy. For the older child, several longer psalms, quotes, and prayers are included; plus the 12 feast icons and kontakia; and an extensive glossary filled with terms and vocabulary often heard throughout the liturgical year.

Icon A Novel

by Georgia Briggs

Forget your old name. Forget your parents. These are the things Euphrosyne's grandparents and counselor tell her. But if Orthodox Christianity is a lie, why did the icon so dramatically save her life? And what can she do to get the icon back? In a post-Christian America, where going to church, praying, or owning holy things means death, a twelve-year-old girl searches for the truth. Finding it may cost her everything.

This is a one-of-a-kind Orthodox novel in the popular dystopian genre which provides a powerful exploration of religious persecution, as seen from the inside. A strong, relatable heroine faces some of the same issues as contemporary teens. Now includes book group discussion questions.

If You Love Me Serving Christ and the Church in Spirit and Truth

by Matthew the Poor

What does it mean to serve God in His Church? Whether you are clergy or laity, hold a position on the parish council or mop the floor of the nave—if you have chosen to serve Christ in any way, this book will challenge and inspire you to give your all for Christ.

Everyday Wonders Stories of God's Providence

by V. Rev. Michael Oleksa

Popular author and speaker Archpriest Michael J. Oleksa has spent most of his life serving the Church in Alaska and advocating for the Native populations there. But he has also had many adventures in other parts of the world. The unifying thread in all his experiences is the providence of God, leading him, providing for him, and guiding him through miracles large and small. In this collection of reminiscences, Fr. Michael relates story after story of the wondrous love and mercy of God working in his life and the lives his ministry has touched. His faith and enthusiasm are contagious.

Akathist to Jesus, Light to Those in Darkness

by Lawrence R. Farley

Eventually, everyone comes to dwell in darkness for a time. That is when we need to turn to Jesus, the only Light of the world and the only rescue for those in pain and despair. We break through the darkness by offering praise to God. This akathist is offered to all who sojourn in the darkness, with the prayer that they will use such praises as this to break through.

Akathist to the Most Holy Theotokos, Daughter of Zion

by Lawrence R. Farley

Zion in the Old Testament is a type of the Holy Mother of God. As God chose to dwell in Zion and thus blessed and glorified her, so God also chose to dwell in Mary and to bless and glorify her. In the New Testament, Jerusalem is revealed as both a virgin and a mother—just like the Holy Theotokos. This akathist draws on scriptures that reveal this image of Mary as Zion, so that we may see anew Christ's Gospel work revealed in the Old Testament.
