I Pray Today

Good morning, God.

The day is new.

I say my first small prayer to You.

Lord, have mercy!

Lord, have mercy! When you're a toddler, every day is full of beautiful ups and difficult downs. And yet from sunrise to sunset, each day, each moment even, can be met with a powerful prayer that young children can remember: Lord, have mercy.

Beautiful Things

An Orthodox Coloring Book for Children

The Orthodox Christian experience is infused with beauty. God calls to us through the presence of beautiful things—from the elegant chalice we drink from at communion to the icons hanging in our homes. Beautiful Things is a 64-page coloring book for our littlest believers. As they color the Good Shepherd or the words Lord, have mercy, they will be cultivating their own sensibility to beauty while learning to recognize some of the meaningful symbols, elements, and motifs of the Church.

- Ages 3 to 6

Paperback

7.25 X 10, 64 pages

ISBN 9781944967420—$9.95

In addition to coloring pages, Beautiful Things includes a few activity pages with mazes and more.

MELINDA JOHNSON

The Barn and the Book

Sam wants to know if animals (especially Saucer!) can speak at midnight on Christmas Eve. Grace and Macrina are competing to write a story, and Elias is losing his patience. Meanwhile, Sister Anna hopes God will rescue her from teaching Sunday school. Christmas is coming, but hearts are full of secrets and frustrations. The Barn and the Book is a story about the traps we build when we try to see in the dark. We tumble into trouble and confusion on our own, but God can steer us clear of our traps and shine His kindly light into our darkness.

Shepherding Sam

Sam's Aunt Eva says he's like a tornado—he causes a ruckus everywhere he goes. But Aunt Eva won't give up on Sam, and neither will Saucer, the monastery's corgi puppy. Saucer lives at the monastery, but he dreams of herding sheep. With no sheep in his life, Saucer tries to herd everyone else—farm animals, nuns, and especially Sam. Sam doesn't want to follow anyone, not even a funny puppy. But Saucer knows that if he just keeps trying, he can bring this lonely boy back to the flock.

SYLVIA LEONTARITIS

Songs of Praise

A Psalter Devotional for Orthodox Women

“A psalm is a city of refuge from the demons, a means of inducing help from the angels, a weapon in fears by night, a rest from toils by day, a safeguard for infants, an adornment for those at the height of their vigor, a consolation for the elders, a most fitting ornament for women.” —St. Basil the Great

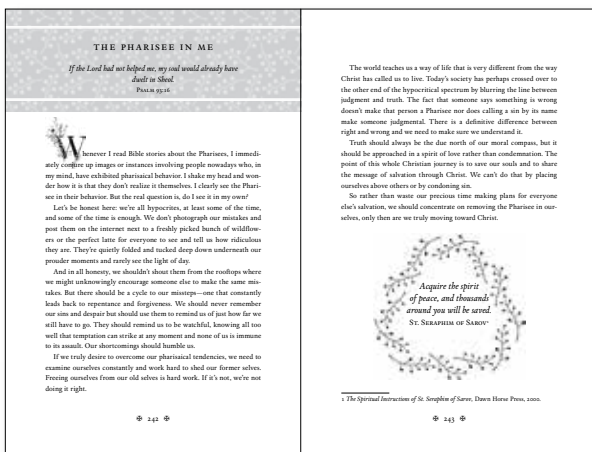

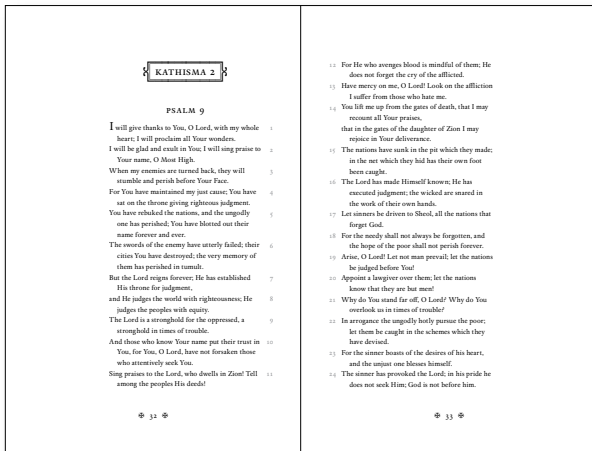

If you want to make the Psalter a more integral part of your life—either on your own or as part of a Psalter group—Songs of Praise is the perfect aid. It includes the full text of the Ancient Faith Psalter (with wide margins for note-taking). Each kathisma is followed by a reflection from popular Orthodox Mom blogger Sylvia Leontaritis plus several blank pages for journaling. Read, reflect, and journal your way through the Psalter this Advent or Lent and let its holy words sink into your soul.

ANGELA DOLL CARLSON

The Wilderness Journal

365 Days with the Philokalia

The Philokalia—a collection of the best writings from Orthodox spiritual masters across many centuries—is a treasure trove of direction for the spiritual life. But it can be overwhelming at first glance. Popular author and podcaster Angela Doll Carlson set herself the mission of reading through The Philokalia in a year and journaling about the thoughts it called up in her. The result is a thoughtful, inspiring daily devotional that introduces new readers to this great spiritual classic and helps us apply the wisdom of the ages to a layperson's life in the modern world.

PRINCESS ILEANA OF ROMANIA

I Live Again

A Memoir of Ileana, Princess of Romania and Archduchess of Austria

Princess Ileana of Romania—who in later life became Mother Alexandra, founder of the Holy Transfiguration Monastery in Pennsylvania—wrote this memoir shortly after relocating to the US in the 1950s. It tells the story of life full of suffering, tragedy, and exile, but all is suffused with the author's deep faith, hope, love, and even joy. This reprint includes additional material collected by the nuns of Holy Transfiguration that sets the memoir in the context of Mother Alexandra's later life.

V. REV. MICHAEL OLEKSA

Everyday Wonders

Stories of God's Providence

Popular author and speaker Archpriest Michael J. Oleksa has spent most of his life serving the Church in Alaska and advocating for the Native populations there. But he has also had many adventures in other parts of the world. The unifying thread in all his experiences is the providence of God, leading him, providing for him, and guiding him through miracles large and small. In this collection of reminiscences, Fr. Michael relates story after story of the wondrous love and mercy of God working in his life and the lives his ministry has touched. His faith and enthusiasm are contagious.

GORDON T. WALKER

Led by His Love

An Evangelical Pastor's Journey to the Orthodox Faith

Archpriest Gordon T. Walker served God for his entire life, from his childhood as a Baptist in Alabama through years as a Protestant pastor and finally, after years of searching for the true Church, as an Orthodox priest. One of the founding leaders of the former Evangelical Orthodox Church, Fr. Gordon had a special heart for youth and founded Grace Ministries to facilitate serving them. In the course of his ministry, he touched hundreds of lives with the boundless love and grace of God. This memoir, compiled and edited after his repose by his brother Philip Walker, reveals the servant heart of a dedicated man of God.

V. REV. PETER GILLQUIST

Memories of His Mercy

Recollections of the Grace and Providence of God

Whether he was writing or speaking, Fr. Peter was a master communicator. He had said for years that this was the other book he wanted to write. “I’d like to start from my youngest memories about how the Lord has been merciful to me and now to us,” he said to an interviewer, “through those years of searching for the Church, learning how to be Orthodox, doing the missions and evangelism work; up through the years of retirement, where I continue experiencing His mercy . . . to share with other people the faithfulness of God in a way that I hope will motivate them to trust in Him more than they do now.”

Time and Despondency

Regaining the Present in Faith and Life

Idleness. Apathy. Restlessness. Procrastination. These are symptoms of what early Christian theologians called despondency (acedia), a spiritual sickness rooted in a lack of care or effort. A condition as old as the ancients, despondency thrives in today's culture of leisure, anxiety, and digital distraction. Time and Despondency is a penetrating synthesis of ancient theology, spiritual memoir, and self-help practicality. It envisions despondency as the extension of a broken relationship with the experience of time. Driven by the fear of death and the anxiety of living, despondency drives us to abandon the present moment, forsaking the only temporal realm in which we have true fellowship with Christ. The remedies offered for this predicament constitute not only an antidote to despondency but also stepping stones back to the present moment.

L. JOSEPH LETENDRE

When You Pray

A Practical Guide to an Orthodox Life of Prayer

Anyone who prays, or has tried to pray and given up in discouragement, knows praying—really praying—is not easy. Praying consistently seems almost impossible. Too often and too easily, prayer becomes a burden: one more item on an already overcrowded to-do list. Failing to pray becomes a source of guilt and stress as we must once again admit our inconstancy and procrastination to our father confessor. Yet, our Lord said, “Come to me, all of you who are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. My burden is easy and my yoke is light” (Matt. 11:30). The purpose of this book, then, is not to add to the burden, but to ease it by distilling the advice and experience of those who pray.

Icon

(A Novel)

Forget your old name. Forget your parents. These are the things Euphrosyne's grandparents and counselor tell her. But if Orthodox Christianity is a lie, why did the icon so dramatically save her life? And what can she do to get the icon back?

In a post-Christian America, where going to church, praying, or owning holy things means death, a twelve-year-old girl searches for the truth. Finding it may cost her everything.

Becoming Truly Human, The Program

An outreach program designed to engage modern Americans in a conversation about issues too often left unexplored. With these materials, anyone can host an effective discussion group and invite guests to a further exploration of Orthodox Christianity. In the program, you will find a highly engaging and superbly produced feature documentary about the “unaffiliated” category of people who are often referred to as “Nones.” This is the fastest growing demographic in America. There is also a Course Director’s Manual as well as a Moderator’s Workbook for leading group discussions. This ministry is designed to be lay-led with your priest as your spiritual advisor.
