Tending the Garden of Our Hearts Daily Lenten Meditations for Families

by Elissa Bjeletich and Kristina Wenger

Are you looking for a way to keep your family engaged in the true spiritual nourishment Lent has to offer? Tending the Garden of Our Hearts offers family devotions based on the scriptures for each day of Great Lent, including questions to discuss and ponder and an appendix full of hands-on activities to bring the lessons of the season to life. Whether you use it every day or dip into it occasionally as time permits, this book will help the whole family get more out of this crucial season of the Orthodox year.

FROM THE INTRODUCTION

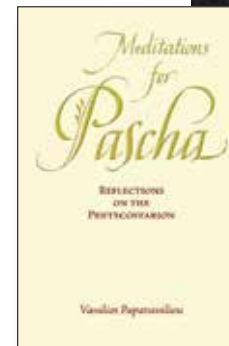

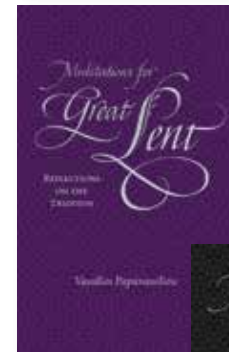

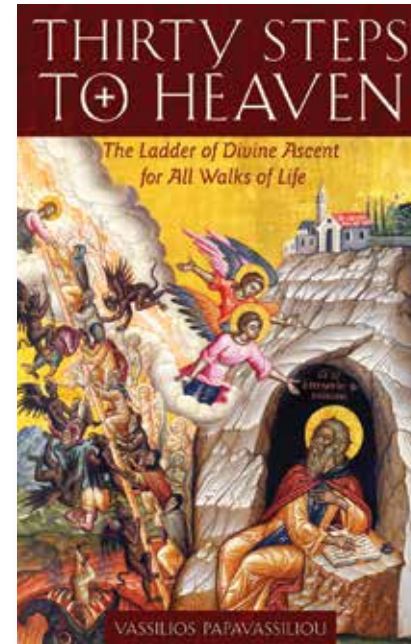

"As we raise our children in the Church, we must find ways to grow through the experience of Great Lent together: to fast together, to attend church together, to do works of service together, and to study together. It is our hope that these meditations will give the family something helpful to dig into and learn together, sparking conversation and helping to bring the fast to life in the home. And as we take this journey together, we'll be learning why we live out Great Lent as we do. May this holy therapy heal the hearts of our families!"

Elissa Bjeletich hosts three popular Ancient Faith Radio podcasts: Raising Saints, Everyday Orthodox, and together with Kristina Wenger, Tending the Garden of Our Hearts. She is the co-author of Blueprints for the Little Church: Creating an Orthodox Home (Ancient Faith Publishing, 2016) and author of Welcoming the Christ Child: Family Readings for the Nativity Lent (Sebastian Press, 2017), and In God's Hands: A Mother's Journey through Her Infant's Critical Illness (Ancient Faith Publishing, 2013). She serves as the Sunday school director at Transfiguration Greek Orthodox Church. Elissa lives near Austin, Texas, with her husband, Marko, and their five daughters.

Kristina Wenger is a mom of two who enjoys interacting with little people. She is an educator who has taught first grade and Sunday church school, homeschooled, and co-founded an educational organization. She works part time for the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education, managing several of their media ministries and writing curriculum. She is also a storyteller who voices some of Ancient Faith's audiobooks as well as the Let Us Attend and Tending the Garden podcasts. Kristina and her husband have two grown children and are members of St. John Chrysostom Church, York, PA.

Thirty Steps to Heaven The Ladder of Divine Ascent for All Walks of Life

by Archimandrite Vassilios Papavassiliou

Many laypeople have attempted to read the great spiritual classic, The Ladder of Divine Ascent, but have been frustrated in attempting to apply the lessons of this monastic text to their everyday lives in the world. Archimandrite Vassilios interprets the Ladder for the ordinary Christian without sacrificing any of its beauty and power. Now you too can accept the challenge offered by St. John Climacus to ascend closer to God with each passing day.

Meditations for Great Lent Reflections on the Triodion

by Archimandrite Vassilios Papavassiliou

Using hymns from the Triodion and the Scripture readings appointed for the season, Meditations for Great Lent shows us how to make our fast acceptable: to fast not only from food but from sin; to fast with love and humility, as a means to an end and not an end in itself. Keep this gem of a book with you to inspire you for the Fast and to dip into for encouragement as you pursue your Lenten journey.

The Ancient Faith Psalter Audiobook

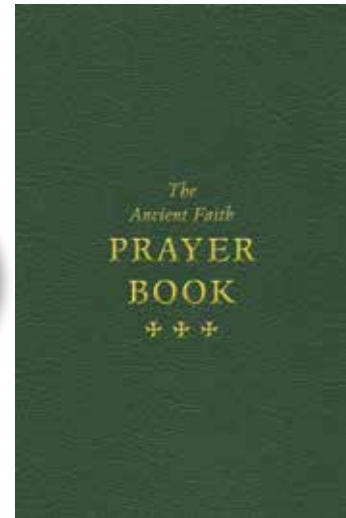

Read and chanted (not a CD; download only)

This special edition of the Ancient Faith Psalter includes two full recordings (one chanted, one read aloud) by Fr. John Oliver, with an introduction by Fr. Michael Gillis. Both versions were recorded on the solea of an Orthodox church, and the beautiful sound quality reflects the presence of that sacred space. The Psalter audiobook is a powerful companion for your daily prayers and for times when you need a source of peace and encouragement.

Orthodox Worship A Living Continuity with the Synagogue, the Temple, and the Early Church

by Benjamin D. Williams and Harold B. Anstall

Ancient Faith has produced a fresh update and redesign of a book cherished by a generation of seekers. Written in an accessible manner for the average lay person, Orthodox Worship offers insights into the Orthodox liturgy. Early Christians preserved a continuity of worship from the Old Covenant to the New, employing elements from the Jewish Temple liturgy, the synagogue liturgy, and the rituals of the Jewish home. The book shows how divinely revealed Old Testament worship is not only continued but also fulfilled in the Orthodox liturgy. A line-by-line explanation of the liturgy is included.

FROM THE INTRODUCTION

“Our intent is to explain the background and development of the Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom. Our approach is to address the average Christian. This book is not written for people with advanced theological degrees who have studied theology or worship. We will discuss plenty of doctrine and practice in their historical context, but the aim is to help the average person understand what the Liturgy is, how it came to be, and how it came down to us over the course of two thousand years.”

Benjamin D. Williams holds a Master of Theology from Fuller Theological Seminary (1979). He has served in various facets of Christian ministry, including pastor, cantor, prison chaplain, and parish council chairman. He has been actively involved in the founding of three mission parishes and was ordained as a Reader (OCA) in 1994. He has served in various leadership roles in nonprofit organizations, and has conducted leadership development seminars for the past twenty years.

Harold B. Anstall, M.D. (now deceased) was, until his retirement, Professor of Pathology at the University of Utah Medical Center and author of many scientific books and publications. He was also a lay theologian in the area of liturgical worship and liturgical theology, part of a venerable tradition in the Eastern Orthodox Churches. Harry regularly taught adult education classes, particularly in the area of liturgics, over the years in various Orthodox churches in Salt Lake City, UT.

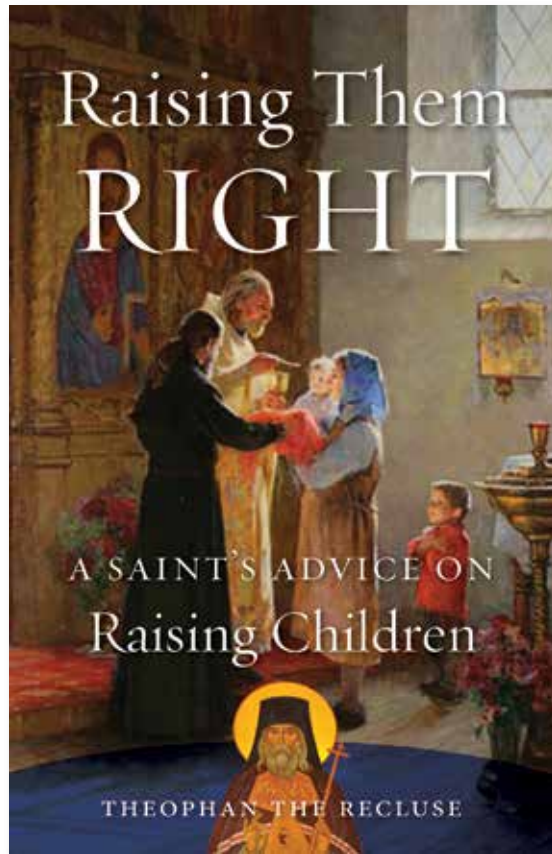

Raising Them Right A Saint's Advice on Raising Children

by Saint Theophan the Recluse

Saint Theophan, while from a different era and country, has an uncanny ability to communicate with modern Westerners. Raising Them Right provides both practical and spiritual insight into a variety of areas of concern to parents, such as baptism, guiding the spiritual and psychological development of children through their teens, and preserving grace in a child's life.

A fresh redesign of a spiritual classic.

FROM THE FOREWORD

"Raising Them Right is prophetic for our time. Its message is a fresh breath of hope and promise for parents and pastors alike. May it be used to shape countless thousands of our children—and us adults—more fully into the image and likeness of God." —Fr. Peter E. Gillquist

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Theophan the Recluse was born in 1815 in Chernavsk, Russia. After completing a theological education, Theophan took monastic vows and was ordained to the priesthood. In 1859, he was consecrated as a bishop, serving first in Tambov, then later in the diocese of Vladimir. Although a kindly bishop and a good administrator, Bishop Theophan grew increasingly weary of public office, and he longed to lead a life of prayer and seclusion. In 1866 he resigned from his active work of diocesan administration and retired to a remote monastery hidden in the great forests at Vyshen. Here he was to remain in seclusion until his death twenty-eight years later. After six years as abbot of the monastery and being an active part of the monastic services, in 1872 Theophan became a recluse. He remained strictly secluded, never going outside his cell, seeing no one but his confessor and the superior of his monastery. As a recluse for the rest of his life, Theophan devoted himself to prayer and asceticism, to correspondence, and to literary work.

Songs of Praise A Psalter Devotional for Orthodox Women

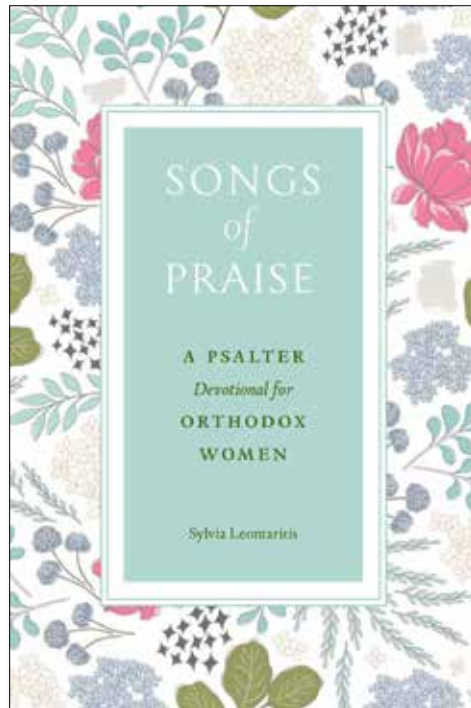

by Sylvia Leontaritis

"A psalm is a city of refuge from the demons, a means of inducing help from the angels, a weapon in fears by night, a rest from toils by day, a safeguard for infants, an adornment for those at the height of their vigor, a consolation for the elders, a most fitting ornament for women."

—St. Basil the Great

If you want to make the Psalter a more integral part of your life—either on your own or as part of a Psalter group—Songs of Praise is the perfect aid. It includes the full text of the Ancient Faith Psalter (with wide margins for note-taking). Each kathisma is followed by a reflection from popular Orthodox Mom blogger Sylvia Leontaritis plus several blank pages for journaling. Read, reflect, and journal your way through the Psalter this Advent or Lent and let its holy words sink into your soul.

FROM THE "NOTE TO PARENTS"

"Love is our main motivation in our Orthodox Christian life, in parenting, and in Holy Confession. Let love leaven your preparation for all the Sacraments. You can do everything perfectly yet lovelessly and thus harm the souls your children. Be a model of repentance, asking the forgiveness of your children when you veer off course. If they see you repenting with love they will be drawn to it."—Fr. Noah Bushelli

Saint Spyridon's Shoes

by Christine Rogers

Young Spyros spends his days fishing, octopus hunting, and dreaming of attending school like his best friend, Niko. When he encounters an elderly man on the beach after an accident, his whole life begins to shift and change. But who is this mysterious, saintly man, and why is his friendship so important? Take a short trip back in time to the Greek island of Corfu and discover the real reason for the mystery surrounding Spyridon's shoes.

ABOUT ST. SPYRIDON . . .

Saint Spyridon lived in the 4th century in Greece, on the island of Cyprus. He was an uneducated shepherd, and the father of one daughter, Irene. After his wife died, Saint Spyridon and his daughter both became monastics. Saint Spyridon performed many miracles during his life, once turning a snake into gold so a poor man could buy food for his family. Many years after he died, his grave was opened so that his body could be moved to Constantinople. His relics were found to be incorrupt, and a great smell of basil came from his grave. After Constantinople fell to invaders, his body was moved again to the island of Corfu, where his relics remain to this day. Saint Spyridon is the patron saint of the island of Corfu, and has appeared many times over the centuries to defend the island from invading armies and famine. Saint Spyridon lived a great and holy life, and continues to answer the prayers of those who pray to him for help.

The Barn and the Book

by Melinda Johnson

Sam wants to know if animals (especially Saucer!) can speak at midnight on Christmas Eve. Grace and Macrina are competing to write a story, and Elias is losing his patience. Meanwhile, Sister Anna hopes God will rescue her from teaching Sunday school. Christmas is coming, but hearts are full of secrets and frustrations. The Barn and the Book is a story about the traps we build when we try to see in the dark. We tumble into trouble and confusion on our own, but God can steer us clear of our traps and shine His kindly light into our darkness.

I Pray Today

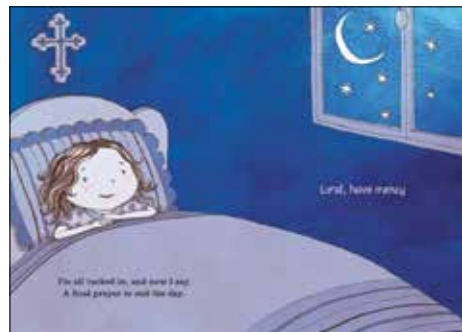

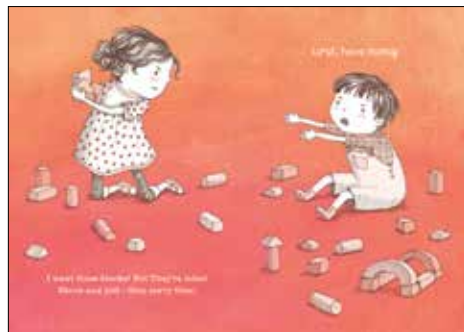

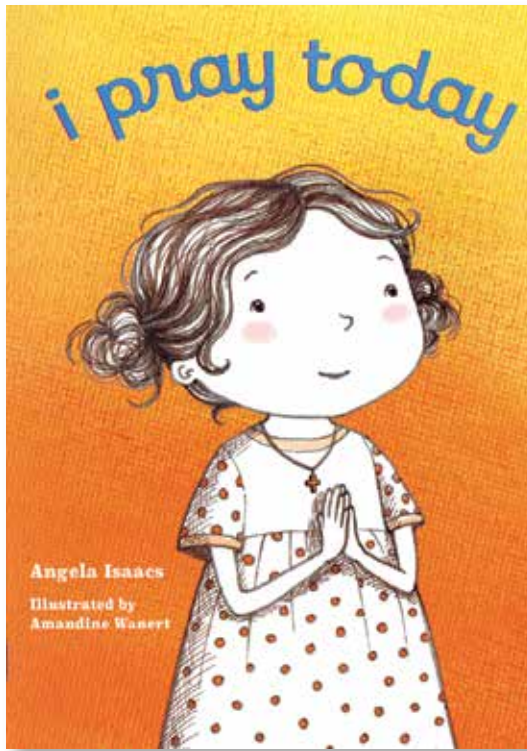

by Angela Isaacs
with illustrations by Amandine Wanert

Good morning, God.
The day is new.
I say my first small prayer to You.
Lord, have mercy!

Lord, have mercy! When you're a toddler, every day is full of beautiful ups and difficult downs. And yet from sunrise to sunset, each day, each moment even, can be met with a powerful prayer that young children can remember: Lord, have mercy.

We Pray

by Daniel G. Opperwall
with illustrations by Jelena and Marko Grbic

Written in expressive verse, We Pray invites children and their parents to explore some of the unique aspects of Orthodox Christian prayer life. Through reflections on topics like icons, the Jesus Prayer, and the liturgy, children are invited to see the beauty in our way of praying and understand better the purpose of Orthodox prayer.

In the Candle's Glow

by Elizabeth Crispina Johnson
with illustrations by Amadine Wanert

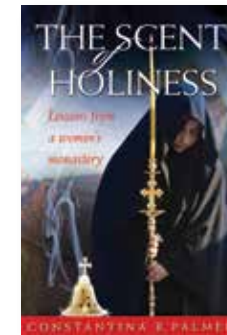

The bees do their work. The beekeeper does hers. And little Felicia, with the honesty and faith of a child, takes the fruit of the bee and the beekeeper's efforts and lights her candle and prays. She prays once, she prays twice, she prays three prayers, then watches the breeze from the window carry her prayers from the candle heavenward.
